Chief Clerk

OFFICE OF THE POLICE COMMISSIONER.
29 Pemberton square.

Boston, Wednesday, July 2, 1919.

Police Commissioner Curtis was at his office today and transacted the following business:

The records of Tuesday last were read and approved.

The Superintendent of Police was directed to promulgate the following to the Department by General Order:-

Rule 24, Section 5, is hereby amended to read as follows:-

5. Sergeants shall inspect separately the men of their respective platoons as soon as they are formed preparatory to marching on patrol or other duty, and shall see that they are properly uniformed and equipped, and that they have with them keys to the police signal boxes. They shall also inspect the officers' revolvers in each division once a week and report to the Commanding Officer as to their condition.

Machine guns and shot guns are under the direct control of the several Commanding Officers who will be held responsible for their condition. They should be cleaned and oiled once every fourteen days. Oil will be furnished on requisition by the Property Clerk.

Rule 46, Section 1, is hereby amended to read as follows:-

1. Revolvers will be furnished to all members of the Force, to be carried loaded when on duty. Each member shall be held responsible for the perfect condition of the revolver furnished to him. He must see that it is clean, loaded, and ready for use; and should it need repairs, he must so report at once to his Commanding Officer. Extra cartridges will be furnished from time to time on requisition by Commanding Officers for the purpose of testing revolvers in the hands of their men or of replacing cartridges likely to have become defective. Members of the Force shall familiarize themselves with the handling and the work of their revolvers, and they shall carry when on duty no revolvers not of a pattern authorized by the Department.

There are now only two makes of revolver in the Boston

General Order concerning Department Revolvers - concluded.

Police Department, namely: Smith & Wesson and Colt's Police Positive, both of 38 calibre. It is the duty of Commanding Officers to see that no other makes of revolvers are carried by officers under their control, and should any officer be found carrying a revolver of any other make, report of the fact together with the name of the officer should be immediately sent to the Superintendent.

The applications of the following named persons for Hackney Carriage Drivers' Licenses were granted for the year ending June 30, 1920.

Boston, Tuesday, July 15, 1919.

Police Commissioner Curtis was at his office today and transacted the following business:

The records of Monday last were read and approved.

In the matter of the complaint made by Captain Clinton E. Bowley of Division 17 against Patrolman Lyman Johnson of Division 17 for alleged

CHARGE 1. NEGLECT OF DUTY.

Specification: In that he (said Patrolman Johnson) failed to report at the station-house at the end of his tour of duty at 8 o'clock, a. m., on June 29, 1919.

CHARGE 2. NEGLECT OF DUTY.

Specification: In that while on duty he (the said Patrolman Johnson) entered his home at No. 55 Mendum street, Roslindale, not in the performance of police duty at about 7.30 o'clock a. m., and remained until about 9.40 o'clock a. m., June 29, 1919.

The Superintendent of Police was directed to promulgate the following to the Department by General Order:-

I note that a movement among the members of the Boston Police Force to affiliate with the American Federation of Labor is actively on foot. I had hoped that the older men in the service who have served under my predecessor, Stephen O'Meara who understood his attitude on such matters would have speedily and effectually terminated such a movement. Mr. O'Meara issued a General Order to the Police Force on June 28, 1918. I repeat to the members of the Force what he said in that General Order and trust that each member of the Force will weight every word carefully. Mr. O'Meara said:

"It is propable that the printed rumors to the effect that members of the Police Department are discussing the advisability of organizing a union to be affiliated with the American Federation of Labor represent no substantial sentiment existing among them. Under ordinary conditions no attention would be paid to such rumors, but even though unfounded they are so likely to injure the discipline, efficiency and even the good name of the Force, and the times are so favorable to the creation of discontent among men who are bearing their share of the war burdens, though still at home, that I feel it to be my duty to make the situation clear.

"There is no substantial disagreement as to the wisdom and even the necessity of maintaining unions among persons following the same industrial occupation.

"Though a union of public employes, as distinct from those composed of employes of private concerns, is in itself a matter of doubtful propriety, such union in any case and at the worst could effect the operations only of a particular branch of the city service. The Police Department on the other hand exists for the impartial enforcement of the laws and the protection of persons and property under all conditions. Should its members incur obligations to an outside organization, they would be justly suspected of abandoning the impartial attitude which heretofore has vindicated their good faith as against the complaints almost invariably made by both sides in many controversies.

"It is assumed erroneously that agents of an outside organization could obtain for the police advantages in pay and regulations. This is not a question of compelling a private employer to surrender a part of his profits; it has to do with police service, which is wholly different from any other service, public or private; a service regulated by laws which hold to a strict responsibility certain officials of whom the Police Commissioner is one. The policemen are their own best advocates and to suppose that an official would yield on points of pay or regulation to the arguments or threats of an outside organization if the policemen themselves had failed to establish their case, would be to mark him as cowardly and unfit for his position.

"I cannot believe that a proposition to turn the Police Force into a union subject to the rules and direction of any organization outside the Police Department will ever be presented formally to its members, but if unfortunately such a question should ever arise, I trust that it will be answered with an emphatic refusal by the members of the Force who have an intelligent regard for their own self respect, the credit of the Department and the obligations to the whole public which they undertook with their oath of office."

I desire to say to the members of the Force that I am firmly of the opinion that a police officer cannot consistently belong to a union and perform his sworn duty. I am not an opponent of labor unions and neither was Mr. O'Meara. He pointed out in well chosen language that there is no question in the Police Department as to how much of an employer's profits should be shared with the workers. Policemen are public officers. They have taken an oath of office. That oath requires them to carry out the law with strict impartiallity, no matter what their personal feeling may be. The laws they carry out are laws made by the representatives of the people assembled in the Legislature. Therefore it should be apparent that the men to whom the carrying out of these laws is entrusted should not be subject to the orders or the dictation of any organization, no matter what, that comprises only one part of the general public. A man who enters the Police Force as I have stated takes an oath of office and he should realize that his work is sharply differentiated from that of the worker in private employ. It is difficult to see under these circumstances what a policeman can hope to gain by the proposed affiliation although it is easy to see how the other affiliated bodies may gain a great deal. Mr. O'Meara put it well when he said that "The policemen are their own best advocates and to suppose that an official would yield on points of pay or regulation to the arguments or threats of an outside organization if the policemen themselves had failed to establish their case, would be to mark him as cowardly and unfit for his position."

As Police Commissioner for the city of Boston I feel it my duty to say to the Police Force that I disapprove of the movement on foot, that in my opinion it is not for the best interests of the men themselves and that beyond question it is not for the best interest of the general public which this Department is required to serve.

In the matter of the complaint made by Captain Thomas F. Goode of Division 16 against Patrolman Joseph M. Connor of Division 16 for violation of Rule 39 of the Rules and Regulations of the Police Department, to wit:
